Title of item	Greek God Project Rubric
Owner/Creator	Mackenzie McNickle
Site found	n/a
Description of item content	The Greek god project allows students to select a god, goddess, or hero of interest, and pursue independent research. The student compiles the information into a poster, diorama, or other presentation. Then, we create a mini-museum of all the students' work, and invite other classes to come and look.
How this item informs your goals. Significance in your Practicum/Internship experience.	The project offers choice of topic and choice of format. The RAFT (role, audience, format, topic) model is great for gifted students, as it automatically differentiates the content for them, and allows them to delve more deeply into a topic. In this situation, the audience (other students) and role (museum curator) are given, and the students can select their format and topic.
